Non-Fiction

Volume One of Dianny's daily column, DIANNY RANTS, this insightful, snarky, not to mention hilarious, collection takes aim at politics in the Age of Obama -- from the Royal Family (AKA The Obamas) to the first cartoon character ever to occupy the office of Vice President. From Gun Control to Gay Marriage. From Immigration Reform to Hollywood. Prepare to be entertained, frustrated, and inspired. RANT is a powerful, often hysterical read.

Volume Two of Dianny's daily column, DIANNY RANTS. RANT 2.0: Even More Politics & Snark in the Age of Obama picks up

Diann delves even deeper into the murky depths of life in Obama's America -- starting at the top with Obama himself and working her way down to the shark-infested waters of Obama's "Fundamentally Transformed" America. Whether it's a nagging, pampered First Lady, the endless vacations, the threat of ISIS, the failure of Obamacare, the riots in Ferguson, Missouri, or pot in the White House brownies, Diann's unique wit and brutal honesty never fail to hit their mark.

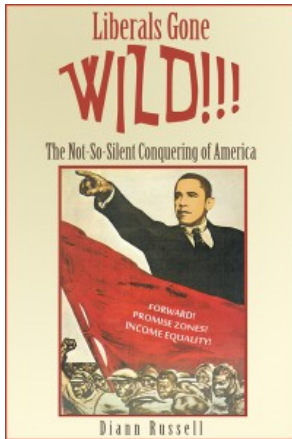

In addition to being part political commentary, part razor-sharp satire, RANT 2.0 also includes almost 100 of Diann's biting clever agitprop images.

Liberals will hate it!

Conservatives will love it!

Establishment Republicans will feel left out entirely -- which, really, is as it should be.

RANT 2.0 will inspire you, infuriate you and entertain you.

For more than a century, Liberalism has sought to quietly conquer our nation from within. Barack Obama's election to President took the "quiet" out of this quiet coup. The curtain has been pulled back and we can see before our very eyes Liberalism's assault on our nation. And we know today that Obama's "Fundamental Transformation" is nothing more than the overthrow of America. From the weakening of our national defense and appeasement of America's enemies to the targeting of American citizens through governmental agencies and NSA spying. From the destruction of the family and our civil society to the eroding of our educational system. From the undermining of our Constitution to the downsizing of American culture. With laser-like clarity and surprising humor, Diann Russell's book dives in and explores this not-so-silent conquering of the Constitutional Republic known as the United States of America, and the counter-offensive required to restore our nation.

Fiction

Sliding Home Feet First is the story of Patrick O'Donnell, a young man growing up in Chicago during the 1960s. Patrick finds himself struggling to reconcile his traditional upbringing with a culture that has rejected the past. But his experiences help him discover a balance between the chaotic world in which he lives and the home and family whom he loves.

Sliding Home Feet First is baseball, rock 'n roll, political protest, free love, and a grandmother who has taken up boxing at the Y. It is a story of an American family.

"It's time to stop running and face your past. Because until you do, you will never be able to change. And this is all about change."

"Under the Cloud" is the story of Carol McMillan - a successful fashion model whose life takes an unexpected turn after a car accident lands her in AA. When she learns of the death of her father, she returns home to Upstate New York for the first time since she ran away at the age of seventeen.

Carol's trip home forces her to confront the events of her past that drove her from the only home she ever knew.

Told in both the "present" of 1972, and the "past" of 1960, "Under the Cloud" is filled with vivid characters, hilarious adventures and heart-wrenching grief. It is a "coming of age" story. It is a story of confronting and letting go of the past, accepting the present, and finding redemption and peace, and the courage to change.
